The Survey to be held in Mysore for the Mysore War Relief Fund Committee, comes under the same category as the Survey held for the K. R. Hospital Nurses Home, & as such, the question of holding Jan does not arise. For discussion on this point vide notes in paras 13 & 17 in the file kept below. I nothing to add, what is stated in these notes. I presume in this case the Survey will be drawn up in the War Course enclosure, but somewhere outside the said enclosure.

My dear Kesaviengar.

I have undertaken to get up a big Fete on behalf of the Mysore State War Relief Fund and His Highness the Maharaja's Hospital Fund, commencing in the middle of May 1940 and running for a month. His Highness the Maharaja has graciously accorded his distinguished patronage to the Fete. As one of the principal items of the Fete I am organising a Sweep-stake on the Derby Race, with the permission of the Government of Mysore.

I am arranging to send you Sweep-stake ticket books and posters under separate cover.

I shall be profoundly grateful to you, if you gave me your co-operation in making the Fete a success in the shape of placing the ticket books with all the officers of your Department. Kindly arrange to issue personal instructions to all your officers to do their best in selling the tickets. I shall be happy to send if necessary, a further supply to you or to anybody you suggest.

Thanking you,

Sincerely yours,
